

Music Membership Terms and Conditions

By purchasing an Individual Music Membership, you agree to the following terms and conditions.

Practice Rooms

- Practice rooms need to be booked in advance via the online booking system.
- The use of practice rooms is for music members only.
- Practice rooms can not be booked by music members for the use of non-members, nor can music members provide access for non-members.
- Practice rooms needs to be left tidy at the end of each booking.
- All broken, faulty or missing equipment needs to be reported as soon as possible.
- Smoking and vaping are prohibited in practice rooms.

Instruments/ Equipment Hire

- Equipment and instrument hire is for music members only, therefore cannot be booked on behalf of others.
- Bookings need to be made 5 Days in advance. Last minute requests can not be accommodated.
- All broken, faulty or missing equipment needs to be reported as soon as possible

The Recording Studio

- The recording studio can not be booked by music members for the use of non-members, nor can music members provide access for non-members.
- All music members using the studio, need to attend a studio training session first.
- Those who have already received training, will need to complete a refresher.
- Any codes provided as part of training sessions can not be shared.
- The recording studio must be booked via the online booking system. Frank Oliver and Cabaret may also be booked as live rooms if not already in use. Please email music@exeterguild.com to book.
- The recording studio needs to be left tidy at the end of each booking
- All broken, faulty or missing equipment needs to be reported as soon as possible.
- Smoking and vaping in the studio are prohibited.